

FREEHOLD MINERAL RIGHTS INFORMATION SEMINAR

The Freehold Owners Association (FHOA) is sponsoring an information seminar for owners of subsurface oil and gas rights.

When: Saturday, September 18, 2004 at 1:00 p.m.

Where: In the Festival Hall (formerly the Memorial Centre), 4214 58th Street, Red Deer, Alberta

Format: The seminar will be held in conjunction with FHOA's Annual General Meeting which is scheduled to be held for 2 ½ hours starting at 10:00 a.m. The seminar will follow a brief lunch break. Guest speakers include:

Mr. Michael Bruni, Q.C., Executive Manager of the Energy Team of the Alberta Energy and Utilities Board (the AEUB), who will speak on the role of the AEUB as it relates to freehold owners.

Ms. Brenda Curle, Manager of the Freehold Mineral Tax Department of Alberta Energy, who will speak on freehold mineral tax.

Mr. Michael Niven, partner in the legal firm of Carscallen Lockwood LLP and director of FHOA, who will speak on gross royalty trust agreements.

Mr. Brad Murray, a professional engineer and director of FHOA, who will speak on the issue of coal bed methane as it relates to freeholders.

A question and answer session will follow the presentations.

Cost: $10.00 per person

For Further
Information: Else Pedersen - 403 783-3433
FHOA's Office - 403 245-4438