FREEHOLD MINERAL RIGHTS INFORMATION SEMINAR

The Freehold Owners Association (FHOA) is sponsoring an information seminar for owners of subsurface oil and gas rights.

When: Tuesday, April 26, 2005 at 7:00 p.m.

Where: In the Legion Hall, 5012 - 51st Street, Stettler, Alberta

Agenda: Guest Speakers will include:

Brad Murray, Director of FHOA, who will speak on coal bed methane and deductions from freehold royalties;
Bob Willard, Senior Advisor to the Alberta Energy & Utilities Board, who will speak on reduced spacing, holdings and co-mingling;
David Speirs, FHOA's Technical Chairman, who will speak on what to do when the landman comes knocking and the new freeholder-freindly FHOA lease.

Representatives of the Alberta Energy Department and the Farmers' Advocate will be in attendance.

The seminar will be followed by a question and answer session.

Cost: $20.00 per person
